GAUDALUPE COLLEGE NOTES.
Seguin, Texas April 21.—Last week was a very pleasant week for the students of Gaudalup College. The classes in Psychology, Civics and S. S. Training had examination. Creditable marks were given to the registrar from each. The Sophomore, College and Senior classes, gave a picnic on the beautiful Gaudalup river last Wednesday. All of the classes are energetically working to raise their quota in the campaign. Dr. and Mrs. Aiken and the Quartette returned from Austin and San Marcos where they sang at the Tabernacle, Rev. Southern's church, white Baptist College, San Marcos, and Rev. W. B. Green's church. The visitors for the week were: Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Chriemman. Mesdames Miller and Mayes of San Antonio; Mr. Simon Sheffield of California, Mrs. M. Burns, Misses I. M. Burns and E. P. Washington, Rev. Dyre, pastor of the white Baptist Church, Seguin.
The B. Y. P. U. had for its guest Sunday afternoon, Miss Lou Willford, San Marcos, Mrs. A. W. Stamps, Judge and Mrs. A. J. Wurtz and baby (white) of Seguin. In a few well selected words Judge Wurtz told us how interested they were in our struggle out here. Mrs. A. V. Willford (white) of San Marcos Baptist College, donated to the college a splendid set of books, for which we are very thankful.

Crockett, April 21.—Rev. J. M. Mallard pastor of the C. M. E. Church was at his post Sunday. They are holding services in the Presbyterian Church as their church is being repaired. The revival carried on at St. Luke under the pastorate of Rev. H. C. Robinson was a success. There is to be baptizing later on. The annual sermon of the American Woodmen was preached Sunday, Rev. A. R. Jackson officiated. There was a large audience and the sermon was excellently rendered. The members of the A. M. E. Church are planning for a Calendar Feast, April 28th, making ready to entertain the District Conference May 11th. Rev. and Sister Alexander of the A. M. E. Church are out of town looking after the district as the P. E. is elsewhere. The pastor's grand-daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Pouncey, is on the sick list. Misses Earlie Tarver and Emma Hayden are now at home from their respective schools. Prof. J. W. Hogg and Mr. L. Davis are quite a help to the farmers of Houston County. They are the two great buyers. The readers of the Dallas Express are glad to see the paper.

Paris, April 21.—On last Friday night the Sunday School of St. Paul Baptist Church entertained in honor of the teachers and members of the Boys' Class No. 8, for having led the other classes of the school in the great Easter financial campaign, the class which is taught by Miss K. M. Campbell raised over $80.00 in six weeks. A good crowd was present and all enjoyed the affair. The four weeks campaign conducted by the Ladies Missionary of St. Paul Baptist Church was a complete success. The goal was for $100.00, but from the reports of the clubs Sunday night more than $140.00 had been received. The close of the campaign the ladies donated $100.00 to the Trustee Board of the church. Oratorical Contest of Gibbons High School was held last Sunday night. The Auditorium of the school. The large crowd present enjoyed every number. There were six prizes: one for each division. The following won prizes in divisions, one to six respectively: Willie Trotter, Selan Webb, Edward Anthony, Estie Powell and Mabel Brownrigg.

Cameron, April 21.—On the second Sunday, Cameron Grove was the center of attraction. The choir from Brown and several other of our visitors were present. At night Lights Chapel choir furnished music upon special request, Cameron Grove's choir rendered two selections. Too much credit cannot be given Mr. T. L. Avery as Chorister. The choir under his management is hard to surpass in training. One of the largest funerals ever held in Cameron was attended Sunday at Bethel A. M. E. Church over the remains of Rev. Dixon, (M. A.) pastor of Covey's and Little Rock Churches. The following out-of-town persons appeared on program: Messrs. A. Eifer and A. Young of Covey, Mesdames Burleson and Robinson, Belton; Rev. J. G.
